

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State couples who have proven down through the years to be exceptional citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Charles and Judy Wolfe of Southwest City, Missouri, have attained distinction as civic-minded businesspersons and volunteers who own and operate the local John Deere dealership; and

Whereas, on May 7, 2005, Charles and Judy Wolfe will be the honorees at the twenty-eighth Old Timers Day in Southwest City; and

Whereas, Charles and Judy Wolfe will be seated on the grandstand with their children, Eric and April Wolfe, Mark Wolfe, and Michelle and Dusty Hurst, and with their grandchildren, Derek, Brandy, Summer, and Devon; and

Whereas, through her highly competent efforts at the John Deere dealership, Judy Wolfe has always supported Charles Wolfe's volunteer efforts, including his forty-four years with the volunteer fire department, service as Santa in the Christmas parade, clearing snow from city streets, setting off Fourth of July fireworks in cooperation with Fire Chief Frank McKee, and providing hot dogs and drinks for trick-or-treaters at Halloween; and

Whereas, Charles Wolfe graduated from high school in 1951 and served in the United States Army before marrying his beloved Judy on October 2, 1962; and

Whereas, Judy Wolfe has worked side-by-side with her husband, Charles, since he took over the day-to-day operation of the John Deere dealership following his father's death in the early 1960s; and

Whereas, Charles and Judy Wolfe have a longstanding, highly positive relationship with Old Timers Days through their efforts with organizing flea booths, food booths, the parade route, tractor entries, and advertising, and by their letting employees help out on all occasions:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Charles and Judy Wolfe for special recognition during Old Timers Day and to convey to them this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Charles and Judy Wolfe of Southwest City, Missouri.
